

MENOMINEE NATION NEWS

Volume 28, Number 2

Monday, January 26, 2004

75¢

Tribe unveils additional details about proposed Dairyland Greyhound Park project, including upscale hotel, restaurants and theater

Submitted Article

Zeppos & Associates, Incorporated

KENOSHA (January 19, 2004) – A proposed entertainment destination center and casino at Dairyland Greyhound Park is expected to directly and indirectly create 4,700 to 6,000 permanent jobs in the area and have an annual economic impact of more than $500 million, according to preliminary results of an economic analysis released today by the Menominee Indian Tribe of Wisconsin and its developer, Kenosha-based Kenesah Gaming Development LLC. The Tribe also unveiled initial details about the proposed complex, including a high-quality, upscale hotel; several restaurants, ranging from fine dining to buffet options; and a multi-use entertainment facility.

See DETAILS pg.2

2004 Menominee Nation General Council Meeting

T. Beauprey McIntosh/MNN

After delivering the opening prayer for the Annual General Council meeting of the Menominee Indian Tribe, on Saturday, January 17, 2004 Earl Wescott, Sr. greeted veterans and the Menominee Color Guard. (Inset) Legislatures bow their heads during the opening Flag Song.

Trilby Beauprey McIntosh
Menominee Nation News

On Wednesday, January 14 and Thursday, January 15, 2004 the Menominee Indian tribal voters elected Theodore “Tony” Warrington, Annmarie F. Johnson and Stephanie Awonohopay to the Menominee Indian Tribe’s legislature.

On Saturday, January 17, 2004 at 9:00 a.m. the Annual General Council for the Menominee Indian Tribe was held at the Menominee Casino-

Bingo-Hotel Ada Deer and Blackhawk meeting rooms.

During the legislative candidates campaigns the Menominee Indian Tribe Constitution and Bylaws was a topic of discussion.

At the Annual General Council the bylaws governing the General Council were exercised.

In case it has been a while since you have read the Menominee Constitution and Bylaws we provide the following for your review governing the General Council.

The Menominee Indian Tribe of Wisconsin Constitution & Bylaws dated, August 08, 1991, outlines in “BYLAW III - GENERAL COUNCIL, Section 1, Establishment of General Council; Response to Recommendations.

(a) There is hereby established a General Council which shall be a meeting called at least once a year by the Tribal Legislature and open to all tribal members. The purpose of the

See COUNCIL MEETING pg.5

Legislative Final Election Results

Trilby Beauprey McIntosh
Menominee Nation News

On Wednesday, January 14 and Thursday, January 15, 2004 Menominee Indian tribal voters went to the polls at the Neopit Fire Station in Neopit, Wisconsin and the Gordon Dickie Building in Keshena, Wisconsin between the hours of 10:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. to cast their vote in the final election of Menominee Tribal Legislators.

If Tribal members were mailing their absentee ballots for the final election, “They were due to the Election Commission office on Thursday, January 15, 2004” according to Tammy Kitson with the Election Commission office. Tammy also pointed out, “People can also drop their absentee ballots at the voting polls, which are each open until 8:00 p.m.”

Candidates vying for the position of Tribal Legislator included, listed alphabetically, Stephanie Awonohopay, Alan Caldwell, Douglas G. Cox, Albert “Al” Fowler, Annmarie Johnson and Theodore “Tony” Warrington.

Current Menominee Tribal Legislators whose terms are expiring are Myron Pyawasit, Sarah Skubitz and Lisa Waukau.

See ELECTION pg. 2

Inside this issue

Legislative Corner	2
Comments	3
Community	4-7
Language	7
Vital Stats	8
Golden Birthdays	8
Education	9-12
MISD Minutes	12
Health	14
Legislative Minutes	15

Presorted Standard
U.S. Postage Paid
Keshena, WI
Permit No. 16

Menominee Nation News
P.O. Box 910
Keshena, WI 54135-0910
Address Service Requested